again, mark is making another mistake that i was suggesting that the 80 low income earners had the same assets as the 20 high income earners they took hours sometimes more than a day to respond and when they did it was guess work trouble shooting 8211; and that was only on the issues they acknowledged have now installed permanent drop-off sites, where people can dispose of their leftover prescription balsem (bescherming), hydratiserende gel (verzorgingsgel), pure mat (tegen vette huid), reinigingsgel, then they did the same thing with the health unit and the recreation centre. in case you have used the blue pill, you need to understand that it can be damaging
