if i must complain then the first side effect that comes to mind is the taste and after taste so i make sure i have orange juice at hand to wash it down nonetheless, facebook might not have trouble selling the idea since it only has to build on the idea twitter has already installed onto our brain if they did, then an amendment (or repeal of amendment) to the constitution would not have been required to start or end prohibition i can finally read (at least a bit better) as i had just lost all ability a physician-led adherence intervention has demonstrated effectiveness in this vein
