once the labels are aligned, do not move them, or you will have to align them again.

another type of gossiping is dishing which is done unintentionally