in addition, the placement of aeds in public places such as airports and casinos allows prompt use of these devices by trained laypersons.

the bill requires importers of any food, drugs, devices or cosmetics to register with the secretary and be assigned a unique identification number.

for years drug war bureaucrats have been tailoring their budget requests to the latest news reports.